

LOOKING GLASS DISTRICT – LEADER’S BANQUET

Wear your “winter woolies”, favorite ‘bogin, and break out those hand and foot warmers to join us for what is sure to be a wonderful, and maybe wacky, District Banquet. It will certainly be a “one of a kind” and a GREAT CHANCE to fellowship together while recognizing our great volunteers.

DATE: Saturday, January 29

TIME: 3:00pm (afternoon heat wave and still light)

LOCATION: Jackson Park (in Hendersonville) – Shelter 1

COST: $5 per person

FOOD: Bring some extra money as there will be food options (and you can watch for details as we get closer to the event)

Don't let a little frosty temperature keep you away --- after all, we are Scouts and always up for a challenge!

Recognitions will include: Unit “Key Leadership” awards, Program Volunteer recognition, District Award of Merit, and of course there will be some surprises!

Mark your Calendars TODAY! Registration will be available in the near future.
